Artist Statement

Jordan Hollender and Diane Collins, the NYC based photography duo HollenderX2, met at the School of Visual Arts, and married a short time later (10 years).

Joining forces has enhanced their ability to turn humorous and creative concepts into stylized, beautifully lit images—and enabled the pair to guarantee clients a seamless process, fueled by dual creativity and top-notch production from start to finish.

Jordan meditates in his spare time and—rumor has it—laughs in his sleep, while Diane studies kung fu and searches the world for the best spicy dark chocolate ever.
