Artist Statement

On a fast moving train to a neon-streaked unknown, the global community hangs on to the teetering semblance and imprint of a world that is crumbling.

The façade that shields our awareness is something the street artists gilf! believes is worth illuminating and discussing. At once powerful and playful, she is focused on creating positive change through her work.

Motivated by the idea of inspiring people who she will never meet, and breathing hope into many of these difficult issues, her goal is to create art that provokes thoughtfulness and motivates a change of the zeitgeist.

A portion of each sale is donated to a charity specific to that image, when applicable. This allows the collector to take an active approach to the world around us.

gilf! is an up and coming street artist working and living in Brooklyn.
